

NAME OF PUBLICATION

INDIAN EXPRESS

PLACE OF PUBLICATION

MUMBAI

DATE OF PUBLICATION

- 8MAY 2010

Cameras at Corbett to monitor tigers ST<sub>WIS-2</sub>

NAINITAL: To keep a close watch on the movement of tigers in the Corbett National Park, the Wildlife Institute of India (WII) is installing 110 cameras in the reserve. An area of 275 sq kms has been identified in the reserve forest of the park for the purpose, the park officials said.